NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but ever, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their militancy in rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

NORTH CAROLINA PAPERS.

DAILY AND WEEKLY JOURNAL,

WILMINGTON, N. C.

This is the oldest Daily in the State, a leading Democratic journal, located in the largest commercial city in the State, and is a large and ably conducted newspaper. Its circulation is extensive and increasing, and it is a capital advertising sheet. We have no better paper in the State. Price of Daily, $10 per annum. Weekly $3. Address ENGELHARD & PRICE,

Wilmington, Sept. 4-tf Proprietors.

THE MORNING STAR,

WILMINGTON, N. C.

This is a young Daily, still in its first volume and, by its sprightliness and energy, has a growing circulation. It is a warm supporter of Seymour and Blair, and is doing good service. It is a good medium for advertisers and merits the patronage of the public. Price of Daily $5 per year. Address W. H. BERNARD,

Wilmington, Sept. 4-tf Proprietor.

DAILY ROUGH NOTES,

GOLDSBORO', N. C.

This is a sprightly little Daily, and is thoroughly Democratic. It is located in the Cotton region of the State, and is a good advertising medium. It works manfully for Seymour and Blair. Price $6 per annum. Address

J. A BONITZ,

Goldsboro', Sept. 4-tf Proprietor.

THE SOUTHERNER,

TARBORO', N. C.

Our friend, Capt. Biggs, is giving to the public a capital Weekly, ardent in its advocacy of Democratic principles. It is located in the rich Cotton County of Edgecombe, and in one of the prettiest villages of the State, among an energetic people. It has a good circulation and advertising patronage. Price $3 per annum. Address

WM. BIGGS,

Tarboro', Sept 4-tf Proprietor.

SEMI-WEEKLY INDEX,

HENDERSON, N. C.

This is an excellent Conservative journal, conducted with spirit and energy, and well deserves the patronage of the public. It is located on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, in a fine Wheat and Tobacco region, and is an excellent advertising medium. Its terms are moderate. It is now published weekly at $3 per annum, and on the 2d of October the Semi-Weekly will be issued at $5 per annum. Address

FURMAN & NEWBY,

Henderson, N. C., Sept. 4-tf Proprietors.

THE RECORDER,

HILLSBOROUGH, N. C.

Dennis Heartt, Esq., the oldest Editor living in the South, continues to publish the Recorder, and, though nearly ninety years of age, performs the duties of Editor and Foreman of his office. His paper indicates the quiet, truthful and reliable character of its Editor. It stands up for the Constitution and the Union, and supports Seymour and Blair. Price $3. Address

Sept. 9-tf DENNIS HEARTT.

ROANOKE NEWS,

WELDON, N. C.

This is an excellent Semi-Weekly paper, published at the junction of four Railroads. It is located in a fine corn and cotton country, and is well conducted. It is thoroughly Democratic. Its circulation is good and it is a good advertising medium. Price $5 per annum. Address

STONE & UZZELL,

Weldon, N. C. Sept. 4-tf Proprietors.

WARRENTON COURIER,

WARRENTON, N. C.

The Proprietor, I. H. Bennett, is giving his readers a good Weekly Democratic journal. It is located in an excellent Wheat and Tobacco region, and among an intelligent population. It is a good advertising sheet. Price $3 per annum. Address I. H. BENNETT.

Warrenton, Sept. 4-tf Proprietor.

THE TRANSCRIPT,

EDENTON, N. C.

This excellent Weekly has been revived recently and deserves patronage. It is published in a good Corn, Wheat and Cotton section, and in the midst of the best fishing portion of the State. It goes warmly for Seymour and Blair. Price $3. Address WM. BRENAN.

Sept. 9-tf

THE PLAINDEALER,

WILSON, N. C.

The Proprietor, C. S. McDaniel, Esq., is publishing one of our best Weeklies. It has a good patronage and is a good advertising sheet. It is located in the handsome, growing village of Wilson, and is a devoted Democratic journal. Price $3 per annum. Address

C. S. McDANIEL,

Wilson, N. C., Sept. 4-tf Proprietor.

VEGETABLE PILE OINTMENT.

TO THE PUBLIC.

FOR 25 Years I was sorely afflicted with the Piles. After trying every remedy I could hear of and failing to receive any benefit, in 1857, I discovered a remedy, purely vegetable, which effected an entire cure, and I have had no return of it.

Anxious to relieve the afflicted and to promote my own benefit, I made public my discovery and had the gratification to know that my remedy cured a large number of persons. My ointment was advertised in the public prints and I met with great success, until the war came on.

By the advice of friends, I have determined again to manufacture the OINTMENT and offer it for sale. Any number of certificates of its value could be obtained if necessary.

Price of box $1, and postage. (Fifteen cents.) As soon as I can make arrangements, I will put it in the hands of the druggists of the State.

THE RADICAL ORGAN'S ADVICE TO RADICAL CANVASSERS!

Here is the advice given by the Raleigh Standard to the canvassers of its party in North Carolina. Here is the PEACE to which we are invited by the election of GRANT and COLFAX. Here are the necessities requiring Holden's all thousand DETAILED MILITIA. MEN OF NORTH CAROLINA, read this result to your mothers, your wives and your daughters, and learn the purposes of the cowardly adventurers who are now governing your State. Says the Standard:

"BUT WHEREVER ELSE YOU WORK, DON'T FORGET TO WORK AMONG THE WOMEN. THE CONFEDERACY WOULDN'T HAVE LASTED A YEAR IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR THEM. ONE GOOD REBEL WOMAN IS WORTH A DOZEN REBEL MEN. GO AFTER THE WOMEN THEN. THEY WILL MAKE THEIR HUSBANDS SHOUT FOR GRANT AND COLFAX UNTIL THEY ARE HOARSE, IF YOU WILL MANAGE TO REPLACE SOME OF THE DIAMOND RINGS AND LACES FRANK BLAIR STOLE FROM THEM WHEN HE WAS HERE. AND DON'T HESITATE TO THROW YOUR ARMS AROUND THEIR NECKS NOW AND THEN, WHEN THEIR HUSBANDS ARE NOT AROUND, AND GIVE THEM A GOOD——! THEY ALL LIKE IT, AND THE YANKEES TOO ARE THE DEVILS IF THEY'D HAVE OUR EXPERIENCE WITH FEMALE KIND TO, THAT WITH ALL THEIR SINS, THEY HAVE A VAST AMOUNT OF HUMAN NATURE, AND ONLY WANT TO HAVE IT APPRECIATED TO BE THE MOST LOVING CREATURES IMAGINABLE. SCALAWAGS AND CARPET-BAGGERS, DON'T FAIL, THEREFORE, TO TAKE CANVASS THE STATE, TO LOOK AFTER THE WOMEN. YOU ARE ALL GOOD LOOKING AND THEY KNOW IT, BUT WITH NATIVE MODESTY, LIKE NEW ENGLAND GIRLS, THEY LIKE TO BE APPROACHED FIRST—DON'T BE AFRAID OF THEIR KISS—THEY ONLINE LIKE YOUNG LEOPARDS BY DAY LIGHT, BUT UNDER THE MOON NO BLUE DEATH-SEEKING FAWN IS HALF SO TENDER OR HALF SO LOVE. DON'T READ JUDGE PEARSON'S LETTER TO THEM, BUT GIVE THEM BYRON AND SHELLEY IN VOLUMES. AND YOU WILL HAVE THEM IN YOUR ARMS, IF NOT IN YOUR PANTS, IN LESS THAN A WEEK."

THE ELECTION.

The election will be held throughout this State on the 3rd of November next. There will be but one day for voting. The law provides that the Commissioners shall make as many precincts, and as many boxes at each precinct, as shall be necessary for the accommodation of all the voters. This is the spirit and the meaning of the law.

We hear that some think there must be three boxes at each precinct and no more. This, we think, is an error. There ought to be only so many as are necessary. The policekeepers at each box should have an apartment or box for the ballots for Presidential Electors, alone, and a separate apartment or box for the ballots for members of Congress; and if State Senators or Representatives are to be elected, at the same time, there should be a separate box for those ballots. By the way, we have not heard of a single instance of the issue of writs of election by "Gov." Holden to fill the vacancies in the State Senate and House of Representatives. Is it not time?

REGISTRATION AND VOTING.

1. Remember that EVERY VOTER in North Carolina, in order to vote, must register between the 15th of October and the 3rd of November next. You must ALL register again, before you vote.

2. Remember that if voters are challenged, it must be done WHEN they register, and before they vote. No voter can be challenged at the time he votes, unless he registers at the same time.

3. Registrars must make public the times and places when and where they will receive the names of voters for registration, and they should not receive names at any other time. Therefore, both parties should be represented by proper persons at the Registrar's table, at such times, to prevent improper persons from registering. They must be there to challenge them. Don't forget this.

THE LATE RIOTS.

The most prominent fact staring out in the late disturbances at Camilla and New Orleans is the unmitigated atrocity of the carpet-baggers, who are sowing the seeds of discord in the South and leading the negroes to their ruin. In the affair at Camilla these wretches were leaders, and countenanced, if they did not instigate, the marching of the battalion of blacks into the town, in battle array, armed with loaded guns.—In New Orleans the same class of recreant and depraved whites were equally active in marshalling the black columns and exciting the unregulated passions of their simple dupes.

WHAT RADICALISM HAS DONE.

Nothing can be more manifest to the plainest man, who knows anything of the Constitution and history of his country, than that the success, the very life and the perpetuity of our system of government depend upon the virtue and intelligence of the people. If the great mass, the ruling, controlling part of the people, are ignorant, vicious and corrupt, then the government cannot last; all experience shows that it will pass into the hands of bad men, who are ever seeking to aggrandize themselves and to secure for themselves power and place. All history and experience prove this.

If this is true, may not the people of this State, and the whole South, tremble for the consequences to grow out of the ascendancy of Radicalism and negro rule? No one will question that the negro is ignorant, extremely ignorant, and prone to be led astray by wicked and corrupt men; they are without intelligence and almost uniformly consent to believe a lie; they do not reason; they have not foresight and do not act upon well informed judgment; they throw themselves into the keeping and under the direction of corrupt men, because such men hesitate not to tell them lies and to deceive them. The poor negro follows on after their lying promises, hoping to realize his wishes and hopes, and has not sufficient intelligence to learn that he is the dupe of consummate meanness and duplicity.

That this is true of the negro, no frank person will deny. And these very negroes, thus ignorant and thus led by bad and irresponsible men, this day rule North Carolina, and, indeed, the whole South. Is this not so? But for the negro votes, (75,000 of them,) would we have the government and rulers we have in this State? The facts and figures show directly the contrary. More than sixty thousand majority of the white vote of the State is against the men who this day domineer over and insult and outrage our decent white people, and but for this tremendous negro vote, these low, irresponsible men would not be in power. Hence, we say, the negro rules? It is his vote that enables these desperate and wicked out-caste to humiliate, degrade and injure the white people of all classes,—not one more nor less than another. White men of North Carolina! everywhere, in the mountain coves and on the banks of the sea, think of these solemn and important facts and consequences!

Any reflecting man could not help seeing, through the eye of reason, that just such a state of things must come to pass in view of the negro power. But we have had experience, which leaves no ground for debate or speculation.

Only see what has been done: The Constitution of our fathers has been utterly cast aside, as not suited to Radicalism and negro supremacy. The balance of power in the Legislative department of the government is destroyed; there is no longer any constitutional protection for well regulated labor or property; the votes of ignorant, thriftless negroes are potent to control both branches of the Legislature; they can plunge the State into any sort or amount of debt, for any purpose, while they pay no tax and never will; they have already increased our public burthens about ten millions of dollars, and placed the debt in the virtual control of "carpet-baggers" and irresponsible scalawags. The records show these facts to be true.

Then look at our Judiciary: We had a system, the cheapest in the world, and one that secured the administration of Justice better than any other in the country. We had Judges under that system, whose virtue, dignity and learning made them revered and honored by our own people, and admired and commended by the wise and good of all civilized nations. What have Radicalism and negro rule given us for all this? They have given us an unsettled, illogical, uncertain system, that will cost at least three times as much as the old system. Get the fee bills and count the cost, and any man can see this for himself. They have given us a class of Judges, who, in the main, are a disgrace to the bench, a mockery of dignity and decency, a laughing stock for the legal profession, and a curse and blight to the people. Is this not so? All the Judges, with two exceptions, have become blatant politicians; they go right into the contests of the day as though they thus labored for their bread; they are Radicals of the truest type, and the Radical papers boast that they are Radicals, and hold them up as examples for the decent people to imitate. Most of these Judges, too, are notoriously incompetent; they have no legal learning, or any other sort of learning, and, what is worse, they have no capacity to learn.

Radicalism and 75,000 negro votes gave us all this!! Our County Court, the people's Court, has been absolutely abolished,—a Court of great usefulness and the cheapest Court that could be established.

Then a complicated Township system has been established, very expensive in its provisions and one wholly unsuited to the tastes and wants of our people.

All this, people of the State, is the price of Radicalism, and 75,000 negro votes cast at the bidding of men, in the main, who do not live in the State, and who are your enemies,—who are mere adventurers, carpet baggers, who have neither character, responsibility or respectability.

Let the people, of all parties, CONSIDER THESE THINGS!

DOCUMENTS! DOCUMENTS!!

Our friends from all quarters are writing for documents. But these cannot be gotten up and printed without money. The Central Democratic Executive Committe here are doing all that can be done, until our friends in the several Counties respond to their calls for aid. So far, very little has been done. Our friends, North, have a use for all their money. We must help ourselves, and however poor we are, if all will do what they can, we can do what is necessary and will carry the State for Seymour and Blair. Our opponents are expending money largely. Let us do our best.

SPEECH OF HON. WILLIAM H. BATTLE,

Late Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, at Chapel Hill, September 12th, 1868.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Sept. 19, 1868.

Hon. Wm. H. Battle:

DEAR SIR—The undersigned having listened, with pleasure, to your speech on the 12th. inst., and being satisfied that the portion relating to Judge Pearson's letter will meet the views of a vast majority of the people of North Carolina, and will be of a great benefit in assisting our people to come to a correct understanding of our great political changes, respectfully ask of you a copy of the same for publication.

P. H. McDADE, Ch'm.

JONES WATSON, }
J. T. CROCKER, } Committee.
WM. FETTER, }

CHAPEL HILL, Sept. 22, 1868.

Gentlemen: Your letter of the 19th. inst., requesting for publication a certain part of the speech which I delivered to the citizens of Chapel Hill and its vicinity, a few days ago, is now before me. Yielding to your wishes I have written out the part you require, and hope it may meet with the same acceptance elsewhere as it seems to have met with here.

For the kind terms in which your wishes have been communicated to me, please accept my most heartfelt thanks.

Very truly your's,

W. H. BATTLE.

To P. H. McDade Esq., Chairman, and Jones Watson, Esq., James T. Crocker, Wm. Fetter, Committee.

Fellow-Citizens:—Many of you are aware that I was, by appointment, to have addressed you two weeks ago upon the great topics which now agitate the country. You are aware, too, that I was prevented from doing so by a sad event which deprived the State of one of her ablest and most useful citizens, and me of a valued and life-long friend. I am grateful to the kind Providence which has permitted me to fulfil a promise which I made to appear before you to-day. I thank you for coming out to hear me. I esteem it as a high compliment that you have done so; particularly as, in doing it, you have had to neglect your agricultural labors at this busy season of the year.—I must return my thanks to the ladies, also, for honoring me by their presence. Whether it proceeds from a sounder judgment or a more delicate instinct, the fact is certain, that the ladies are generally on the right side; and it must be a great support to any public speaker to find himself encouraged by their presence and cheered by their smiles.

This occasion, fellow-citizens, is one of no ordinary interest. It is a great crisis in the life of the nation. More than three years have elapsed since the close of the late civil war, and yet the country is in a state of confusion and alarm. Complaints of injustice and oppression are heard on every side. Many of us feel ourselves deprived of our just rights and privileges, and there is more or less of distrust and anquietness prevailing every where through out the land. Why is this so? Is the great question which I have to discuss; and I think I can demonstrate to your entire satisfaction, that it has been caused by the so-called laws, which are generally known as the Reconstruction Acts of Congress.—Those measures I believe to be unconstitutional, and, therefore, null and void, and I now take upon myself the task of proving them to be so.

At the close of the late war, when the armies under Generals Lee and Johnson had surrendered, a great question was presented, as to how the Southern States were to be restored to their former condition in the Union. The task of accomplishing this was certainly one of the greatest magnitude, but to a mind unmoved by passion, and unbiassed by prejudice, it presented no very formidable obstacle. The President of the United States, in all his proclamations and other public acts, and Congress, in all its laws and resolutions, had declared that the war was waged on their part solely for the purpose of suppressing the rebellion, and repudiated again and again the idea that it was a war for conquest. Having these things in view, General Sherman concluded a Convention with Gen Joseph E. Johnson, which, if it had been approved and ratified by the Administration, would have restored all the States lately in revolt, at once, to their former relations to the Government. And all this would have been effected without the slightest violation of the Constitutions of either the United States or of the States. Conventions would have been immediately called together in the several States by the proper authorities thereof, such changes in their respective Constitutions, in relation to the abolition of slavery, and in such other particulars as the General Government had a right to require, would have been adopted, and the whole country would long since have been pacified, and would now be enjoying a state of comparative peace and prosperity. In proposing his plan, Gen. Sherman exhibited the highest qualities of statesmanship; and he, in my estimation, deserves the high credit of having seen more clearly than any other man the wants of the country, and the measures by which those wants could be met. Unfortunately the scheme proposed by this great statesman for the pacification of the country, though it was in exact accordance with the often expressed purpose of the President and Congress in their efforts to suppress the rebellion, was not approved by the Administration, in consequence of which another plan had to be devised and carried into effect. That plan comprised the measures, which, as you all know, were adopted by President Johnson and his Cabinet for the re-organization of the States lately in revolt.

So far as North Carolina was concerned William W. Holden was appointed Provisional Governor. Through his agency a Convention of the people was called. An amended Constitution, in which were inserted all the changes demanded by the United States government, was framed, and it was submitted to, and ratified by, the people. It was then generally supposed everywhere, and by all parties, that North Carolina was once more a State in the Union, and as such invested with all the powers, rights and privileges enjoyed by any other State. The Provisional Governor, Holden, and all the other public men and authorities of the State, undoubtedly so considered it. Mr. Holden became a candidate for election as Governor, and had he been successful, I shrewdly suspect that we should never have heard of his doubting the right under which he would then have held the office. The Judges of the Supreme Court certainly did not doubt the authority under which they were elected, or that they were Judges of a State, in full communion with every other State. This can be shown by the highest evidence, the evidence of their own Judicial decisions.

At January Term, 1867, the case of Hughes, ex parte, was brought before the Court upon a writ of habeas corpus. See 1 Phil. Rep., 57. The facts were that Hughes had gone to the State of New York, and had, in one of the Courts of that State, been indicted for the offence of cheating, by false pretenses, and had fled to this State. The Governor of New York, who was a member of the Radical party, demanded him as a fugitive from justice, of Jonathan Worth, as Governor of the State of North Carolina. Under the warrant of Gov. Worth, Hughes was arrested by the Sheriff of Granville county, whereupon he sued out the writ of habeas corpus, and had it made returnable before the Supreme Court. One of the questions discussed by Pearson, Chief Justice, in delivering the opinion of the Court, was, whether Jonathan Worth was the rightful Governor of a State in the Union. The Judge argued ably and elaborately to show that President Johnson, alone, had full power and authority to adopt the measures which he did for the restoration of the State, and that those measures had had the effect intended; and that, consequently, North Carolina was once more invested with all the rights and powers of one of the States of the United States. But, upon the supposition of some persons, that the concurrence of Congress was necessary to give validity to the action of the President, the Chief Justice went on to say, as follows: "Whether the act of the President was one which required the concurrence of Congress, is a question into which we need not enter; for, taking it to be so, Congress has, in many ways, recognized and confirmed the action of the President in regard to the reorganization of the State government by filling its offices. No other need be referred to than the joint resolution by which certain amendments to the Constitution of the United States are proposed to the Legislature of the State of North Carolina, for adoption or rejection, thereby recognizing the Legislature as a lawful body, and, of course, recognizing, in like manner, the Convention, under whose authority the members of the Legislature were elected, &c., &c."

Here, then, is a clearly expressed opinion of the Supreme Court that North Carolina was, in January, 1867, a "State" in the Union. This must have been so, otherwise the Court did an act of gross injustice in ordering Hughes to be delivered up to the agent of the Governor of New York for the purpose of being carried back to that State. The Constitution of the United States, in Art. 4, sec. 2, par. 2, provides that "A person charged in any State with treason, felony or other crime, who shall flee from justice and be found in another State, shall on demand of the Executive authority of the State from which he fled, be delivered up, to be removed to the State having jurisdiction of the crime." It is thus seen that the Constitution of the United States confines its provision for the surrender of fugitives from justice to cases occurring between the several States, and neither had the Governor of New York a right to demand nor the Governor of North Carolina a right to surrender, Hughes, unless North Carolina had been as much a State as New York.

That North Carolina had been completely reorganized as a State in January, 1867, was also settled by the case of the State vs Bell, 1 Phil. Rep. 76, in which the question was whether the Convention which sat in October, 1865, had the power to tax Merchants who did business in the town of Beaufort between the 1st day of January, 1865, and the close of the war in April or May of that year. Beaufort was at that time in possession of the Federal forces, and the decision turned upon the question whether the capture and occupation of the town was the capture and occupation by the Federal army of a foreign territory, or merely the suppression of the rebellion in that part of the State. The latter was held to be the true doctrine as, is shown by the following closing language which I used in delivering the opinion of the Court upon that point: "The capture of Beaufort by the military force of the United States was not, therefore, the conquest by a foreign enemy of the territory of the State of North Carolina, but merely the suppression of the rebellion in that part of the State; and when afterwards the State was rehabilitated, its loyal government was restored to all its former powers, including the power of taxation, over all its inhabitants in every part of its territory. This view is fully sustained by the opinion of Judge Sprague in the case of the Amy Warwick, before the United States District Court of Massachusetts, and by that of Judge Nelson, of the Supreme Court of the United States, in the matter of Jones Egan, on a writ of habeas corpus." Here then we have the case of a State, admitted by every department of the general and State governments, to be invested with all the rights, powers, privileges and immunities of one of the States of the Federal Union, and I ask where Congress got the power to overturn the government of North Carolina, or intermeddle with its domestic administration! I defy any man to show any rightful authority to interfere with North Carolina, any more than with New York or Massachusetts.

The Reconstruction acts of Congress were passed after January 1867, and I am aware that Chief Justice Pearson has recently written and published a letter in which he asserts their validity, and seeks to sustain his assertion by declaring that, "if these Reconstruction acts are void, so are the Reconstruction measures of President Johnson, and the negroes are still slaves." The Standard newspaper, of Aug. 26, alludes to this declaration, and asks, with an air of triumph, whether it is not logically true. I respond to the question, and assert that it is not true, either logically or otherwise. It will be recollected that the Chief Justice had, long before his letter was written, pronounced judicially that the State of North Carolina had been reconstructed by the act of the President, and that such act had been fully confirmed by the concurrent action of Congress. His argument must be then that Congress had the power to reconstruct the State a second time. Is that the line of the argument? If so, I should like to know how many times Congress has the right to reconstruct the State, and whether it can ever be considered as finally reconstructed? "If the Reconstruction acts of Congress are void, so are the Reconstruction measures of President Johnson," says Chief Justice Pearson. If the Reconstruction measures of President Johnson were valid, as the Chief Justice and I have both adjudicated, then the Reconstruction acts of Congress are necessarily null and void, say I, and I prove it thus: If the Legislature grant a tract of land to one person, and afterward grant the same land to another, will not the latter grant be void because the first grant is violated? And will it not be a perversion of the rules of logic to say, in such case, that if the second grant be void, the first must be so too? Of such reasoning nothing less can be said, than that it is manifestly absurd. The case of a second State grant is precisely the same in principle with a second re-organization of a State by the President and Congress.—Chief Justice Pearson, in his letter, admits the authority of the decision in the case of ex parte Hughes; that is, he admits that North Carolina was, at the time when that case was before the Court, completely reorganized and restored to all the rights and bound to all the duties of a State in the Union, and being so I defy him or any other man to show any authority in the Congress of the United States, or in the law of Nations, to thrust her out of the Union for the purpose of attempting to restore her a second time. It is very certain that the logic of his letter cannot do it.

I think then, my fellow-citizens, that I have successfully performed my task, by showing that the Reconstruction measures of Congress are, in the language of one of the articles of the National Democratic and Conservative platform, "usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void;" and it is my firm belief that they will be decided to be so by the Supreme Court of the United States. Now suppose such a decision to be made, will it not be the duty of all the people of the United States to acquiesce in it? The friends of Seymour and Blair, undoubtedly, will do so; and if the celebrated invocation of General Grant to "let us have peace," is sincere, then his friends must acquiesce likewise. Away, then, with the fear of the war spoken of by the Chief Justice!

I call upon you, then, my fellow citizens, you, above whose heads floats the flag of the United States, with the glorious names of Seymour and Blair inscribed upon it, to vote as you may think right,—to fear God, and to fear nothing else.

NOTICE.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY has paid another loss. Read the following:

$3.000.

WILMINGTON, Sept. 16th, 1868.

Received of the Ætna Life Insurance Company, by the hands of W. H. Crow, General Agent, Three thousand dollars, in full payment of all demands upon the Life Policy of my deceased husband, Larkin F. Bunn. No. of said Policy 48,703
With many thanks for this prompt payment in the hour of my affliction and need,
I am, respectfully,
HESTER A. BUNN.

Added to the above, may be mentioned another fact, proving the wisdom and beneficial results of Life Insurance, and also the fidelity and good faith in which this old and well tried Company deals with its members.

In less than three years this Company has done more than all others combined, to relieve the wants of the widows and orphans of North Carolina.

It has paid Policy, No.	15 273	$5.000
" "	10 818	5.000

THE EASTERN WARD!

GLORIOUS MEETING LAST NIGHT!

DEDICATION OF THE NEW CLUB ROOM!

We have, of course, only space and time to say that the meeting in the Eastern Ward, last night, on occasion of the dedication of the new Seymour and Blair Club Room, was a grand affair,—surpassing, in interest and numbers, any merely local gathering of the campaign. Between four and five hundred persons were present, inside and outside of the Hall, including a large number of patriotic ladies.

The meeting was addressed, in the order of their names, by Messrs. Seaton Gales, E. J. Parrish, H. W. Husted, M. A. Bledsoe, C. M. Busbee, R. C. Badger and J. P. H. Russ. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed.

The commodious and elegant Hall, of which the Club has so much reason to be proud, was beautifully decorated, with engravings, flags, boquets and evergreens,—the handiwork of the ladies of the Ward.

In Monday's paper, we will give a fuller account of this glorious rally, and endeavor to do justice to the occasion, and to the fair ladies and true men who have prepared this fine Hall, and who are working so nobly in the good cause. We can only say, this morning,

THREE TIMES THREE FOR THE EASTERN WARD!

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Maginley & Carroll's Great Legitimate Circus: Will exhibit in Raleigh, on Friday, Oct. 9, 1868. Here is what the Norfolk Day Book says of it:

"The Circus Pavilion was again crowded twice on yesterday afternoon and evening. Its success is well merited—for it is unquestionably the very best organization of the kind that we have ever seen in Norfolk, or anywhere else since the war. The managers appear determined to render it second to none in this country. They have discarded many of the old minor features which involved unnecessary expense, and made instead a more suitable appropriation. None but the finest artistes are employed, and everything done by them evidences a talent of high order in their peculiar avocation. We wish this Circus success wherever it goes."

Coward & Harris, Cotton Factors and General Commission Merchants, 26 Commerce St., Norfolk, Va: We have the pleasure of a personal acquaintance with the gentlemen composing this Firm, and can bear cordial testimony to their energy and reliability. They deserve a liberal North Carolina patronage.

S. D. Harrison, Family Grocer, corner of Fayetteville and Martin Streets announces a large, varied and complete assortment of Dry Goods, Groceries, Notions, &c. This is the largest stock which Mr. H. has imported, and he will sell upon accommodating terms.

CONCERT.—We understand that the ladies of the Choir of the Episcopal Church, in Hillsboro, will give a concert of vocal and instrumental music, on Friday next, the 1st day of October. The entertainment, which will be a very attractive one, is for the benefit of the Church, to complete necessary repairs, already made.

JUDGE BATTLE'S SPEECH.—We invite attention to the remarks of the Hon. William H. Battle, they being part of a speech made by him in Chapel Hill, on the 12th inst.—They are a complete answer to Judge Pearson's argument (so called) on the validity of the Reconstruction Acts, and are characterized by all the sincerity and ingenuousness of the able jurist and estimable gentleman from whom they emanate.

TOURGEE TELLS THE TRUTH, FOR ONCE.—In a late speech at Greensboro, Tourgee told the negroes that it was their pretended friends in Georgia that expelled their colored brethren from the Legislative halls, and not the Democrats, as the Standard had asserted! We hope the negroes will remember this.

DEATH OF A GOOD MAN.—M. S. Sherwood, Esq., of Greensboro, formerly for many years co editor of the Patriot, died in that place on the 19th. Mr. S. was an excellent, useful man, who was universally and deservedly esteemed.

A GOOD EXAMPLE.

We state, with pleasure, that J. P. Andrews, Esq., one of the County Commissioners, has been appointed the Registrar for the Raleigh precinct. The Conservatives and Democrats will not object to Mr. Andrews, for the reason that, although a Radical, they believe that he will observe his sworn duty, and they will expect from him as much fairness as from any member of that party. If all of Gov. Holden's, or the Commissioners', appointments in the State, will be as good as this, we shall expect a pretty fair election.

We learn that Mr. Andrews and the Commissioners will have a sufficient number of boxes, in each precinct, and that they will choose two persons from each party to hold the polls at each box and to superintend the counting of votes. This is simple justice and right. If it is done all over the State, as it ought to be, it will go far to make a peaceable election. All that the Democrats want are fairness and an equal showing. Anything short of this, they will not be satisfied with.

UP WITH THE NEGRO! DOWN WITH THE WHITE MAN!

Our beautiful City was, at the late Radical gathering, filled with negroes, whom the Radical officials sent up from all parts of the State, on the railroads, for less than one-third price; though they had refused to deduct one cent for Democrats and Conservatives coming to their Convention. Many negroes were allowed to travel for nothing.

The Capitol was given up to the blacks for a place to sleep in, and they left it and the public grounds in a shameful condition. They had all to be cleaned out at the public expense.

There was on the 18th instant a presentation of a United States flag to the Seymour and Blair Clubs of Raleigh, and the ladies requested Holden to grant the use of the grounds, in front of the Washington monument, for that purpose, AND IT WAS REFUSED!

ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS A MINUTE!

One thousand dollars a minute is about the amount of taxation which the people of this country are paying to support the ruinous policy of the Rump Congress. One thousand dollars a minute! and what for? Not to promote prosperity—or a re union of the nation—or the re-establishment of trade and commerce—or the old kindly intercourse of the States—but to enable a corrupt party to keep power in the government, by oppressing white people, and elevating the negroes to the ruling power of the States! But for Radicals there would have been, long ago, a thriving trade, as of old, between the North and South—peace, prosperity and happiness. Instead of this, labor is idle—but the taxation of industry is active. The people demand a change, and a change must be had.

A TRUE BILL.—The little handful of negroes, lately expelled from the Georgia Legislature, published a "manifesto" which contained at least one allegation worthy of notice, though going to establish a very different conclusion from what they intended. They say:

"In several counties not a white Republican could be found, or any white man who would accept the colored nomination: yet we are now censured and expelled for doing the best we could, and, what is more astonishing, a number of white representatives, who were professed Republicans at home, since their arrival here have become decided Democrats."

This is a picture of Radicalism in the South which ought to open the eyes of the Northern people. The negroes aver that there is not a "white Republican"—not even a carpet-bagger or a scallawg—to nominate in several counties. What comment can be made on that!

A DISPATCH from Little Rock, Arkansas, says:

"All the post offices between Little Rock and Washington, Arkansas, a distance of one hundred and twenty miles, are closed in order to stop the circulation of Conservative newspapers."

Free speech, free action, freedom to read, freedom of every kind, must be shackled or totally suppressed, no matter how much blood shall be shed, so that the fanatical and wicked designs of a usurping few may be carried out to the destruction of the country.

THE WOMAN INSULTERS.—We have never seen such a torrent of indignation and scorn as the Press and decent people of the State are pouring upon the guilty head of the infamous author of the Standard's brutal attack upon the ladies of the South. We have not yet seen, however, a single depreciation of that villainous slander in any Radical paper! This is significant.

THE TRIENNIAL General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States will meet in New York the 7th of October. All of the States will be represented for the first time since 1859, when the Convention met in Richmond, and the body will comprise a larger number of bishops and divines than any former council. Much important business will come before the Convention. It is expected that six or seven new dioceses and missionary jurisdictions will be erected, and several bishops elected, and possibly consecrated. The subject of re adjusting the canons and many other important questions will be discussed.

CAPT. BENJ. EDWARDS COOK, an old and highly esteemed citizen of Warren, forty-six years Clerk of the Superior Court of the county, died on the 16th, in the 76th. year of his age. A meeting of the citizens of Warren testified their sense of the public loss.

THERE was a row among Democratic and Radical negroes in Newborn, on Wednesday. The former were grossly insulted by the latter. This the Conservative negroes were not disposed to brook, and a fight took place. The Journal of Commerce says:

"Our citizens had no idea that so many Conservative colored men were among us as this outbreak showed. For every Radical negro who put his tip in, a Conservative was found, until at last the Grant and Colfax men, finding that they could make nothing, and might receive some broken heads, by minding other people's affairs, wisely drew off."

Our New York Correspondence.

Messrs. Editors:—While I comply with my promise to write you, it is, you know, a very difficult task, even in so large a field as this, to cull news that will not be comparatively old before it could reach you. Therefore it would be of but little interest to your numerous readers. The hissing of the steam engine, on its iron way, as a messenger, wanes before the flashing of lightning, on its wiry course, which now encircles the continent, traverses its highways, sinks into the stormy Atlantic, follows for three thousand miles its ocean bed, rises in another hemisphere, and makes us as familiar, daily, with the movements of the people there, as we are with those in whose midst we reside. Is it not wonderful to stand in New York and converse with a person in London, and, by the difference of time, the answers to the questions are received two hours before they are asked! This, we must all admit, is a great and wonderful achievement for science, and can scarcely be realized, when we reflect that we are talking through thousands of miles of what was, for centuries, unfathomable depths of water. Yet, as we are told, there is nothing new, under the sun. You have doubtless, frequently, read the verse quoted from the Bible in respect to sending lightning as a messenger; how we have quotations from Nahum to prove that locomotive engines, carrying trains of cars, were predicted way back in the dusty record of ages. But read for yourself. Here it is:

"The chariots shall rage in the streets; they shall jostle one against another in the broad ways; they shall seem like torches; they shall run like the lightnings."

Daniel Webster alludes to this subject in his private correspondence and refers to the chapter and verse. It is certainly a very graphic description of the scenes witnessed continually in the streets of many of the cities and towns of this country and Europe.

Referring to improvements, reminds one, visiting New York, at this time, of the perceptible diminution of the number of vessels, particularly American, in the harbor, as compared with the number always here, previous to the war. Radical rule, it is very evident, has made havoc with the shipping, and their protective or proscriptive tariffs have swept away one half of the tonnage of the United States. Notwithstanding, however, the people of Maine, very graciously, lick the hand that smites them and vote majorities by thousands to a party that has literally driven them, in their own bottoms, from the sea. No people, perhaps, ever suffered more from the policy of a party which they were opposing than this people have from a party and its policy which they were supporting. This pulling the house down on their own heads, as it is done now, with their eyes open, might not be so objectionable, if it did not involve others in the common wreck. But I am no politician and will leave the subject to those to discuss, to whom it more properly belongs.

In the way of business, it is what our forefathers would have called "brisk," though not unusually so for the season, while money is, or has been, quite easy.—The threatening aspect of affairs in Europe may now tighten things up and especially give the gold brokers a chance to run up the price of gold. But, for some considerable time, money has been offered at low rates of interest, at or below four per cent per annum, on first class paper, "on call."—On short time, or from thirty days to four months, or more, on second class paper, with Southern Railroad or State Bonds as collaterals, the rate of interest was much higher and ranged from 7 per cent per annum to 1½ per cent per month, depending, in some measure, upon the character or market value of the securities offered, and of the influence of the parties offering them. Moreover, some days, or even hours, there are favorable opportunities to borrow at comparatively reasonable rates, when at other times, with the same securities, in the same hands, nothing could be done in the way of a loan. Of course, I am alluding chiefly to outside transactions, such as are made for the Southern people, Southern Railroads and Southern States. The Banks, in their dealings with business men here, are no doubt governed in some degree by the legal rate of interest, when lending on time, though they frequently negotiate such paper on short time and on call, at a less rate, when money is easy and abundant.—In fact, if you have as much money as you want, you can borrow as much with it as you have. In other words, if you have government bonds, which bear interest, (United States 5-20s, for instance) you can, with them, as security, when money is plentiful, by adding a good name and by paying at the rate of four per cent per annum or less, on call obtain government notes, the currency of the country, which carry no interest. On call, means to be returned, whenever called for, if the next day after the loan is effected. It is a capital arrangement, you see, for bankers and brokers, who receive on deposit, or for investment, large sums of money, which they can loan in this way, from day to day, at a very low rate of interest, as it is so much gained and that too without a particle of risk, for, at a moment's notice, the securities would replace the amounts loaned out.

Thus, you observe, it is not the safest securities, such as land, &c. required, but those securities which could be converted into currency soonest and with the least trouble, to get money at the lowest rates. With any kind of security, as a general rule, there is great difference between obtaining money on the shortest time, or on call, for the reasons before stated. Hence, I will mention again the difficulty of getting money out South on land mortgages, crops, &c., through the Bankers in New York, or other Northern cities, unless ruinous sums are paid in interest, which many Southern farmers and merchants have ascertained, when too late to profit by their experience.

However, for permanent investments, it would be different, now, but for the politicians, who keep the Southern people in perpetual excitement and turmoil, and then come North and exaggerate and misrepresent their true condition, all for political capital and self-aggrandizement. D.

For the Sentinel.

Messrs. Editors:—Please permit me to call the attention of the City authorities to Sec. 16, Chap. 2, and Section 10, chapter 8, of City Ordinances. In many parts of the city, the side walks are blocked up for hours, daily, by large crowds of boys, white and colored, hallooing, screaming, cursing and disturbing all the families for several squares around them. We feel confident the City authorities will abate this intolerable nuisance, as soon as their attention is called to it.

MANY LADIES.

NEGRO LAWYERS IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 23.

Two members of the Supreme Court (from New York and Ohio) to-day admitted to the bar three negroes from Michigan, Massachusetts, and Pennsylvania.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer has telegraphed to that journal that "the reports from Pennsylvania are not encouraging for the Republicans."

THE INFAMOUS ATTACK ON THE LADIES—ANOTHER MEETING IN DAVIDSON.

At a meeting of the Central Seymour and Blair Club of Davidson County, held at Lexington, Sept. 24, the following proceedings were had:

On motion of J. H. Welborn, Esq., a Committee, consisting of M. H. Pinnix, F. C. Robbins and J. P. Stimson, was appointed to draft resolutions to express the sense of the Club, in reference to an article, headed "WORK," which appeared in the columns of the North Carolina Standard, in its issue of the 19th inst.

The Committee, through their Chairman, M. H. Pinnix, submitted the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, An editorial article, headed "Work," appeared in the column of a newspaper, published in the city of Raleigh, called the North Carolina Standard, in its issue of the 19th inst., which grossly and maliciously belies and slanders the women of North Carolina; and whereas, the former standing of said paper is calculated to give some prominence to said editorial article; and whereas, it is a high privilege, as well as a most sacred duty, of every North Carolina gentleman, to protect and defend the fair names of that most exalted, accomplished and endowed class of our population, without which life would be a monotonous burden:

Resolved, That, laying aside all partisan feelings, we solemly declare that the conduct and motives of the writer of said article merit alike our most unqualified indignation, scorn and contempt.

Resolved, That we call upon every man of North Carolina, of all politics, and especially do we call upon such as have a wife or sister, to at once show his disapprobation and contempt for such demon-like and fiendish conduct, by instantly withdrawing their subscription and patronage from such a foul sheet.

Resolved, That, if there should be one man in our beloved State, so far forgetful of the honor of his household, as to permit said noxious sheet to enter it, until it is purged of such pollution, we call upon some fair lady of the household to consign it to the flames—a fate it so richly deserves.

Resolved, That the Secretary send a copy of these resolutions to the Raleigh Sentinel and Old North State and Watchman, with a request that they be published.

THOMAS SYMONS, Sec'y.

GLORIOUS MEETING IN OLD CARTERET!

BEAUFORT, N. C., Sept. 23, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—A large and enthusiastic meeting of the citizens of old Carteret was held here on yesterday. Such a gathering of the good citizens was a sight worthy to look upon. The meeting was held directly under our large and handsome pole, and we had a fine flag floating from the same, with the names of our gallant standard bearers, Seymour and Blair, appended thereto. The platform was erected at an early hour on the morning of the 22nd.—Overhead were festooned the National colors, and under foot was laid a handsome carpet. The house of the Oceanic Hook and Ladder Fire Company was opened, the truck run out, and seats were placed therein for the ladies, (God bless them!)

At 10 o'clock, A. M., the citizens began to assemble, when the windows, doors and piazzas of the adjoining houses and stores were all filled. We had an audience of at least one hundred of our fairest ladies, who were there to show us that they are ever ready to urge us on with their smiles.

At 11 o'clock, A. M., Dr. Robert E. Walker, President of Seymour and Blair Club, No. 1, of this town, advanced to the front of the platform and called the meeting to order. He then introduced Jas. Bryan, Esq., of Craven county, who entertained the meeting for about one hour and a half.—His speech was loudly applauded.

Major John Hughes, of Craven county, the Elector for this District, was next introduced. In the course of his speech, he made some of our native Radicals (scallawags) feel blue,—one in particular, I learn, who sold out for a free ride on the Rail Road. He showed Radicalism up to the people in its every shape. He also, (after asking pardon of the ladies,) read an extract from an article in the Standard, headed "WORK," and called upon all good men to discontinue such an infamous sheet. That article alone will be worth ten thousand votes to us. Let it be read to every Club in this State, and at every political gathering. This alone will be more than enough to disgust every white face, who has heretofore affiliated with the Radical party.—Major Hughes paid a glowing tribute to the fair sex, who aided us in the good work with their presence. He said that he would not direct his remarks to them, but to the men. "He came not to call the righteous, but 'sinners' to repentance,"—that, as for the ladies, they were always right. He spoke for two hours. His remarks were well received, and, when he closed, he called for three cheers for Seymour and Blair; which were given with a will.

Major Hughes is a gallant man, and in attending our mass meeting on Tuesday, he neglected his business in the Jones County Court. His motto is "country first." He is a good man, and true.

After repeated calls, old Carteret's war horse, Dr. L. W. Martin, came forward and addressed the meeting. He urged upon all to work manfully in the cause of justice and right. His remarks were tip top, as they always are, and he was loudly cheered.

Such a good time it has not been our fortune to participate in for some time. It is a day that will long be remembered by all.

Col. Cowan, of Wilmington, will address our citizens on next Tuesday, the 29th inst. We expect to have a rousing time.

Old Carteret will roll up a large majority in November. We will do our duty. Look well to the West! AMICUS.

GLORIOUS PROSPECTS OF A DEMOCRATIC TRIUMPH.—A PROMINENT ACCESSION—BINGHAM'S CHANCES.—Cincinnati, September 19. Recent advices received here from all parts of the State give double assurance that the Democracy will carry the State by an emphatic majority in October, and by a much larger vote in November.

A prominent and influential public man in Morgan's district, who has been a Republican ever since the organization of that party, will in a few days take the stump and speak for the Democracy. Morgan is entirely out of danger.

Bingham is losing ground very fast.—Twenty voters in one township in Belmont county who cast their votes for the Republican ticket last fall will vote the entire Democratic ticket this year. Our friends write from all points that the Democratic meetings are everywhere larger than the Radical gatherings.—Special to St. Louis Times.

THE GEORGIA CASE.—The talk about special legislation for Georgia's case has all ended in smoke. Common sense has prevailed over the wild demands of carpet-bag fanaticism, and the fact is acknowledged even by the carpet-baggers themselves, that Congress has no jurisdiction over the subject, inasmuch as Georgia has been admitted back into the fold of the Union. To adopt any other theory would be reversive of all the long proclaimed doctrines of Radicals.—N. Y. Herald.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 P. M.

A delegation from the Alabama Legislature, headed by the Governor, are here to request the President to send troops for the preservation of order in that State.

The official advices from the recent Indian fight in Kansas have been received. Lt. Beecher is dead, and Col. Forsyth wounded as reported. Dr. Moore is mortally wounded. Sheridan reports that the party is all right, although surrounded by the Indians, and can hold out, having plenty of ammunition, mule and horse flesh.

Several columns are moving to the scene, and it is thought that the Indians will be severely punished.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25, P. M.

The Ship "Jacob A. Stanley," with crew and passengers from Melita, were burned at sea.

ROBBERY AND MURDER.

DELAWARE WATER GAP, Sept. 25, P. M.

The Brainard House at this place was robbed this morning. Thos. Brodhead, the Proprietor, and his brother, Theodore, pursued and came upon the robbers. Theodore was shot and killed and Thomas severely wounded. The inhabitants turned out and captured the criminals, who barely escaped lynching. They are now in the custody of the Sheriff.

THIRD DISTRICT.—Duckery has out generalled the carpet-baggers. He is the Radical nominee for Congress in the Third District. A. H. Galloway, negro, is the nominee for Presidential Elector.

RADICAL VENGEANCE.—In Washington the regular physician to attend the poor of the 5th Ward has been replaced by a negro empiric. When the delicate relations existing between the physician and his patients—male and female, young and old—are considered, this outrage is enough to make the blood boil. The intention seems to be to punish the more indigent whites who refuse to vote the Radical ticket, by compelling them to admit a negro into their private bed rooms, or be bereft of the advantages of medical attendance and the means of obtainining medicines provided for them by law.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1868.

AN ACT

IN RELATION TO THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF CLERKS OF SUPERIOR COURTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That so much of the act will be incorporated in the general act respecting the practice and procedure of the Courts, required to be reported to the General Assembly at its present session, by the commissioners appointed for that purpose, it will be printed in the general act and not elsewhere among the acts of this General Assembly, unless otherwise hereafter directed.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of State is required to have the third section of this act, and that portion relating to the Superior Court Clerks, printed at least weekly in four papers published in the State, and the sum necessary for that purpose is hereby appropriated from any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 3. The terms of the several Superior Courts of this State shall begin in each year at the times hereinafter stated, and shall continue to be held for two weeks (Sundays and legal holidays excepted,) unless the business shall be sooner disposed of.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THE PLATFORM.

The Democratic party in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide, that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the labo rer and the officeholder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied the noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected the States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of offence, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capital into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irretrievably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its reconstruction measures, constitutional liberty and law, order and peace have been overthrown, and the material prosperity of the country essentially impaired.

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It platters in no double sense. Its language is explicit and its meaning clear. The issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the falsely cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South, they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such states for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places and the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 18, 1868.
